Discover

the authenticity of Brda

The Brda region is most certainly one of the most picturesque landscapes in Europe and at the same time it shows a rich mark of the past. This is where the traditional image of life has been kept much longer than elsewhere. The cultural heritage of the Brda region is highlighted by cultivated landscape, typical architecture of villages, castles and churches, and the ethnological features of the everyday life of locals, in their traditional festivities and typical dialect. The Brda region is especially interesting for nature admirers. It is a natural amphitheatre, full of evident and hidden beauties.

- 1 Vipolže Villa: the most beautiful renaissance villa in Slovenia is a new cultural, conference and wedding centre, where various cultural events, business meetings and private parties are held and characterised with the touch of Venetian elegance and the hospitality of local people.
- 2 View tower: a trailhead for excursions, this 23 m high tower in Gonjače offers a magnificent view of the fairy land that stretches to the sea and the Alps.
- 3 Dobrovo Castle: late renaissance castle with Zoran Mušič Gallery, Count de Baguer's museum collection, winery, restaurant, TIC and shop that sells local products.
- 4 Krčnik and Kotline: natural stone bridge, connected by the Kožbanjšček brook with wonderful pools.
- 5 Šmartno: magical medieval village with a wall, church with Tone Kralj's frescoes, gallery and local craft products.

Enogastronomy: the taste of local and fresh products featured in tasty culinary artworks made by grandmas' recipes, is completed by the local olive oil and excellent wine. The food from gardens brightens up the seasonal plates.

Wine: the steep slopes are home to the most exceptional grapes that have a typical mineral note. The cultivation of vineyards and the love of wine growers for land give the wine a special character. This is called "heroic wine-growing", where the typical wine sort "rebula" is the main cultivated sort.

2

Fruit: cherries hold a special place among the diverse fruits in Brda (peaches, apricots, figs, plums, persimmon), and were glorified already in the past in many European cities, including Vienna and Prague.

3

Olive oil: due to the location and processing methods the Brda region olive oil is extra virgin olive oil with premium taste which is proven by top awards received by the local olive oil producers. The typical sorts are "drobnica" and "črnica".

Honey: acacia, linden and chestnut honey are the most popular types of excellent honey from Brda.
